

Philippians Chapter 4

Living Out Jesus' Story

1. Paul confronted the women out of love both for them and the church. Why is it important to confront disunity in the church with love? What could the negative consequences be if we don't confront in love?
2. What have you learned about rejoicing by reading Philippians so far?
3. When have you come to God with your anxieties? What did that look like?
4. In what ways could gratitude help us when we're anxious? What are three things you're grateful for right now? What could it look like for you to pray with thanksgiving this week?
5. When have you thought something untrue of God? What did believing that lie do to your relationship with God?
6. When have you experienced genuine contentment? What impact did contentment have on your life—your friendships, your work, your family?
7. What's one thing you want to remember from this study of Philippians? What could you do this week to apply that truth to your life?
